

DECEMBER 1986

Center for Slavic and East European Studies

Newsletter

361 Stephens Hall
University of California
Berkeley, CA 94720
642-3230

RO Editor: Judith Clark Stanley (642-9107)

JUN 08 2006

TU LIBRARY

NOTES FROM THE CHAIR

It is my pleasure to inform you that the University of California at Berkeley, in recognition of the expansion of our programs and financial base in recent years, has included the Center for Slavic and East European Studies among its top priorities for fund-raising in the Capital Campaign the University is about to launch. Specifically, four units in the social sciences---our Center, the Center for Latin American Studies, the Institute of International Studies, and the Institute for East Asian Studies---have been made objects of endowment drives during the multi-year fund-raising campaign. The target for CSEES is a one-million-dollar endowment, to be used for the creation of an endowed chair in the Slavic or East European area, graduate fellowships, faculty development, and faculty research support. Of course, as the Campaign develops, the momentum of fund-raising will not be stopped should we exceed the target.

Hence, we are "thinking big" as we plan strategies for raising the endowment. This is no easy task. The University will help us to organize the drive and to make contacts, but ultimately it is up to us to identify and cultivate the foundations, corporations, and individuals who might help us reach our goal. The burden is further increased by the fact that most foundations are reluctant to give funds for endowment; they prefer project-oriented investments with short-term products, such as books and articles. Thus, our success in raising funds for the Center, and for the Berkeley-Stanford Program on Soviet International Behavior, is not necessarily a guide to the strategy required to raise endowments. Nor can our recent successes be called upon to provide a long-term financial base. For that, an endowment is required.

We ask your advice and assistance. If you know individuals, corporations, or other institutions that might be interested in endowing any aspect of the study of Russian, Soviet, or East European Studies at Berkeley, please let us know. The faculty and students in this area at Berkeley are second to none, as a result of which our programs have expanded rapidly in recent years. Potential funders can choose those aspects of the program that interest them the most and, depending on the size of the contribution, can look forward to the creation of faculty chairs, graduate fellowships, faculty research funds, and the like, that would bear their name in perpetuity. Please send your suggestions to:

George W. Breslauer, Chair
Center for Slavic and East European Studies
University of California at Berkeley
361 Stephens Hall
Berkeley, CA 94720
ATTN: Capital Campaign

Center for Slavic and East European Studies

Calendar of Events

Wed Dec 3
442 Stephens
Noon

BAG LUNCH: ELIZABETH WATERS, Lecturer in Russian History at the Australian National University, Canberra, will give a talk entitled "From Victim to Villain: The Prostitute in Post-Revolutionary Russia." Professor Waters is the editor and translator of a volume of the writings of Alexandra Kollontai. Her forthcoming book is entitled Women's Work: Marriage and Motherhood in Urban Russia, 1912-1928.

Wed Dec 3
2347 Prospect
6:30 pm

SLAVIC HOUSE TEA: Screening of recent broadcasts from Soviet television. Students, faculty and other interested persons are welcome to attend.

Fri Dec 5
4 Dwinelle
Noon - 1pm

SOVIET TELEVISION: Selected programs from the previous week's broadcasts of Soviet television will be screened. Paul Karpuk, graduate research assistant in charge of the Soviet Satellite Television Project, will introduce the selections and help with translation.

Sat Dec 6
1924 Cedar
7:30 pm

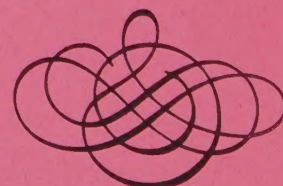

CONCERT AND DANCE PARTY: THE OLD WORLD FOLK BAND and THE EASTERN EUROPEAN WOMEN'S CHORUS will hold a concert and dance party entitled "Ellis Island and Kitka" at the Berkeley Unitarian Fellowship Hall. Admission is $6 for the general public, $4 for children and seniors. For information, call (415) 524-3293.

Fri Dec 12
Stephens Hall
4pm

SLAVIC CENTER PARTY! Join us for refreshments and holiday cheer in the Graduate Students' Lounge, fourth floor of Stephens Hall. Best wishes for happy holidays and a Happy New Year from all of us!

Mon - Sun
Dec 22 - Jan 4

OFFICES CLOSED: As you may know, the University turns off the heat to save money during a period in late December each year. The Slavic Center staff will take a few extra days' vacation to recoup our strength---the better to serve in the New Year. We will be closed beginning Monday 22 December and will re-open on Monday 5 January. We will monitor the answering machine and respond to urgent messages until noon on 24 December.

Berkeley-Stanford Program on Soviet International Behavior (BSPSIB)

The revised edition of the Student Handbook for the Berkeley-Stanford Program is now available in 361 Stephens Hall, Berkeley, and at the Center for Russian and East European Studies, Stanford.

The new Program brochure is back from the printers and is available at both the Stanford and Berkeley Centers. We are working on a large, general mailing, to include institutions, departments and faculty. If you would like to receive a brochure, contact the Center by phone or in writing.

Library News

I would like to highlight a few recent acquisitions. These volumes are still being processed; however, should you wish to be notified when they are available for circulation, call or write to me at my library office.

Abduevskii, V.S. and A.I. Rudov.

"Zvezdnye voyny": bezumie i prestuplenie. Moskva: Politizdat, 1986.

Arkhivite v Bulgariia: putevoditel. Sofiia: Glavno upravlenie na arkhivite pri ministerskii suvet, 1986. (Helpful for those planning to apply for IREX or Fulbright Fellowships.)

Materialy dlia biograficheskago slovaria dieistvitel'nykh chlenov Imperatorskoi Akademii Nauk. Petrograd, 1915. 2 vols.

The library is also receiving a copy of the press release News and Views from the USSR. This publication contains (in English translation) the texts of press conferences, speeches and interviews with important officials in the Soviet government. Currently, the issues of this publication are on file in my office and available for review by any interested faculty member or student. Should use of this publication warrant storage in a more accessible location, I will notify patrons of the transfer in a subsequent edition of the Newsletter.

Allan Urbanic
Rm. 346 Doe Library
642-0956

Summer Russian Workshop at Berkeley

The Department of Slavic Languages and Literatures, Berkeley, will offer first- and second-year Russian language instruction in intensive and self-paced classes. The 10-week intensive session, 8 June through 14 August, will make accommodations for students arriving late from quarter-system schools; tuition is $745 for 10 units. Classes will meet 9-12 and 1-2, Monday through Friday. Self-paced instruction will begin on 22 June. Instructors will be available to administer tests, grade homework and answer questions during the hours for the intensive session; tuition ranges from $331 for 3 units to $695 for 10 units. Applications for both sessions will be available in January through Summer Sessions, 22 Wheeler Hall, UC Berkeley, 94720; (415) 642-5611.

Center Hours During Winter Break

As you may know, the University turns off the heat in most campus buildings for a period during winter break. This year, the Slavic Center will be closed a few extra days. Our last day of regular business will be 19 December; we will return to our regular schedule on 5 January. From 22 December until noon on 24 December, we will monitor the message machine and respond to any urgent messages.

Teachers' Conference, 1986-87: THE GORBACHEV ERA

The Slavic Center's annual outreach conference is scheduled for Friday through Sunday, 1-3 May 1987, at the Alumni House on the Berkeley campus. This year's conference will feature a number of speakers who have not participated in previous programs. As always, the conference is planned for social science instructors at all levels, for college faculty in Soviet and international affairs, and for other interested members of the community. The charge for the full weekend will be approximately $30, which will include lunch on Saturday and Sunday. Although it is too early to sign up, those who did not participate in last year's conference and who would like to receive this year's program brochure, may contact the Center at (415) 642-3230, or by mail. Those who attended last year's sessions will be included in the mailing of the program brochure, which is set for early February. Watch for full details in future Newsletters.

Visiting Faculty

RA DMILA J. GORUP is visiting in the Department of Slavic Languages and Literatures. Dr. Gorup earned her PhD in Linguistics from Columbia University. She is teaching Advanced Serbo-Croatian (Slavic 117 A) and is supervising Elementary Serbo-Croatian (Slavic 27 A).

Slavic Books for Sale

A backlog of duplicate Slavic language books is being sold on the sale truck in the Doe Library Bookstore, Room 105. Books are placed on the sale truck for three days only. The price starts at 75¢ and is reduced by 25¢ each day. The bookstore is open Monday and Thursday, 11-2. The public is welcome.

Local Groups

Amnesty International USA has a Berkeley group, which includes a sub-group on the USSR and Eastern Europe. They put out a newsletter announcing meetings. For information: AIU, Group 387, 2451 LeConte Ave., #202, Berkeley, CA 94709.

VISA, Visits International for Soviets and Americans, is a project of the World Without War Council of northern California. They promote family visits between the US and the USSR. For information: VISA, P.O. Box 2361, Berkeley, CA 94702.

SLAVIC CENTER READING ROOM: 340 Stephens

Canadian Slavonic Papers	1986 #2	Polish Review	1986 #1
Current Digest of the Soviet Press	1986 #36	Revue des Etudes Slaves	1986 #2
East European Quarterly	1986 #3	Russian History	1986 #1
FBIS - East Europe	1986 #214	Russian Review	1985 #4
FBIS - Soviet Union	1986 #214	Slavic & E. European Journal	1986 #2
Jahrbucher fur Geschichte Osteuropa	1986 #1	Soviet Geography	1986 #6
Kommunist	1986 #14	Soviet Union	1985 #3
Kultura	1986 #9 *	Studies in Comp. Communism	1986 #1
Osteuropa	1986 #8/9

* #8 not yet received

FELLOWSHIPS, EMPLOYMENT, STUDY/TRAVEL

W.K. Kellogg Foundation offers fellowships to American professionals in the early stages of their careers. 3-year program offers opportunity to broaden social and intellectual sensitivities, awareness and leadership potential; will be expected to spend 25% of time on Fellowship-related activities and to participate in group seminars sponsored by the Foundation. No support for basic research or assistance in obtaining degrees. For forms, contact the Foundation: 400 North Avenue, Battle Creek, MI 49017-3398; (616) 968-1611. Deadline: 19 December 1986.

Council for International Exchange of Scholars (CIES) offers NATO Research Fellowships for 1987-88 to promote study and research leading to publications on matters relevant to NATO; submit proposals related to public perceptions of the Atlantic Alliance and of the Soviet threat; analysis of Atlantic Alliance's role in development of stable, friendly international relations; or problems arising for western security. Must have PhD or equivalent. Awards of 180,000 Belgian francs/equivalent, plus certain travel expenses. Address below. Deadline: 2 January 1987.

CIES also offers Institutional Research Grants to support collaborative research leading to publications of interest to NATO. 1985-86 award was 200,000 Belgian francs. Contact CIES: 11 Dupont Circle NW, Suite 300, Washington, DC 20036. Deadline: 2 January 1987.

University of California announces the President's Fellowship Program in support of women and minorities who are pursuing academic careers. Will support about 20 post-doctoral scholars; stipend of $22,000 to $28,000 for academic year beginning 1 July 1987, plus some support for research and inter-campus travel. Preference to those in business, engineering, computer sciences, mathematics and the physical and life sciences; others encouraged to apply. Must be US citizen or permanent resident and must have PhD by July 1987. Possibility of renewal for a second year. Contact: Office of the President, 359 University Hall, UC Berkeley, Berkeley, CA 94720; (415) 642-6507. Deadline: 5 January 1987.

Stanford University, Center for Russian and East European Studies (CREES) offers a postdoctoral research and training fellowship for 1987-88. Stipend of $20,000 for academic year; to allow young scholar to prepare significant scholarly manuscript and, if possible, to teach in field of own special competence. Expected to participate in life of Center; should be willing and prepared to teach at least one course (quarter system) in specialty and to present public lecture on research. Must have received PhD no more than three years before beginning of 1987-88 and have completed dissertation by summer 1987. Send full cv, statement of proposed research and writing, description and brief outline of course to be taught, and have three letters of recommendation sent, to: Fellowship Committee, CREES, Stanford University, Stanford, CA 94305-2024. Deadline: 15 January 1987.

Christ Church, Oxford offers a Fowler Hamilton Visiting Fellowship in the Humanities or Social Sciences. Open to applicants from US; for up to one year, to begin between September 1987 and August 1988. Provides free accommodations, a study in the college, free dinners, and roundtrip travel for fellow and family. Limited financial support available in some circumstances. To enable scholar to pursue study and research as member of the college. Contact: Dean's Secretary, Christ Church, Oxford, OX1 1DP, UK. Deadline: 20 January 1987.

American Council of Teachers of Russian (ACTR) announces the 1987 Summer Russian Language Program at the Pushkin Institute in Moscow. Open to undergraduate/graduate students from US who have completed at least two years of college Russian or equiv. Runs 15 June through 4 August. Contact: ACTR, USSR Programs Group, 815 New Gulph Rd., Bryn Mawr, PA 19010; (215) 525-6559. Deadline: 23 January 1987.

FELLOWSHIPS, EMPLOYMENT, STUDY/TRAVEL cont

University of California, Berkeley, Departments of History and Classics, pending budgetary approval, plan to make a joint appointment in Byzantine studies, to begin 1987-88. PhD required. Field is broadly conceived; may have research interests in any aspect or area from late antiquity through the 15th c.; should have linguistic skills and historical training to direct graduate work and offer undergraduate courses across span of subjects, including advanced courses in early Byzantine Greek authors. Rank and salary dependent on qualifications. Send letter of application and cv to: Prof. Sheldon Rothblatt, Dept. of History, UCB, Berkeley, CA 94720. Deadline: 1 February 1987.

Foreign Language and Area Studies (FLAS) Fellowship Program is designed to enable students who are US citizens or permanent residents specializing in any of several disciplines and professional fields to acquire a high level of competence in one or more languages that are critical to the national needs of the US. UC Berkeley offers FLAS fellowships to students who enroll in intensive language courses during summer 1987 for languages pertinent to the USSR and East Europe, among other areas. For details and application forms: Graduate Fellowships Office, 1 California Hall, 642-0672. Deadline: 3 February 1987. NB: this is earlier than last year.

University of Michigan, Center for Russian and East European Studies (CREES) will offer one or more postdoctoral fellowships in support of research projects in any related field. Preference to younger scholars. Stipend of $18,000 may be used in lieu of salary or in conjunction with other awards/grants. Must be in residence major portion of term; will be expected to participate in Center activities. Send full cv, statement of current research and teaching interests, proposal for work to be done during award period, and have three letters of recommendation sent, to: Roman Szporluk, Director, CREES, UM, 208 Lane Hall, Ann Arbor, MI 48109. Deadline: 15 February 1987.

Radio Free Europe/Radio Liberty (RFE/RL) offers Summer Research Internships for graduate students of Soviet and East European affairs. For any 8-12 week period, to begin 1 June, 22 June or 6 July 1987, in Munich, W. Germany. Interns conduct full-time research with aim of producing either several short topical papers or one substantial paper. Provides round-trip travel, daily stipend, and modest accommodations. Full details at the Center or: Mr. Alan Dodds, Director, Professional Development, RFE/RL, Inc. (Munich), at either 1201 Connecticut Ave NW, Washington, DC 20036, or Oettingenstrasse 67, 8000 Munich 22, West Germany. Deadline: 16 February 1987.

American Council of Teachers of Russian (ACTR) offers sixteen-week semester programs at the Pushkin Institute, Moscow. Applicants must have at least three years of college Russian or equivalent. Address above. For Spring 1988, Deadline: 20 February 1987.

ACTR also offers the 1987-88 Ten-Month Program, for graduate students in Slavic and for teachers of Russian at any level to pursue practical language and independent research under direct supervision of a senior scholar at the Pushkin Institute. Address above. Deadline: 28 February 1987.

Ford Foundation Fellowship Program in Combined Soviet/East European and International Security Studies, administered by Columbia University, offers training awards to graduate degree and postdoctoral candidates, government employees and members of the Armed Forces who are now specializing in one of these two fields and wish to gain competence in the other. Encourage applications from those in political science, economics, history, sociology, linguistics, physical sciences, law, and engineering. Full details at the Center or: Soviet/East European and International Security Program, Box 53 International Affairs Bldg., 420 West 118th St., New York, NY 10027; (212) 280-3535. Deadline: 1 March 1987.

AREA RELATED COURSES, UC BERKELEY: SPRING SEMESTER 1987

The following includes courses with a significant area-related component. Listings for the Department of Slavic Languages and Literatures, Berkeley, are too numerous to included here; check the Schedule of Classes or contact the Department, 5416 Dwinelle. Students are advised to check with the departments for further information and/or changes in the schedule.

Anthropology

2	Introduction to Anthropology	Tringham	MF 11-12	100 Lewis	(4)
161	Narrative Folklore	Dundes	TuTh 12:30-2	155 Kroeber	(3)
180	European Society	Brandes	TuTh 8-9:30	155 Kroeber	(3)
226	Archaeological Method & Theory	Tringham	W 2-4	2251 College, Rm. 101	(3)
251	Research Design	Hammel	Tu 2-4	2220 Piedmont	(3)
280X	Circumpolar Peoples	Graburn	contact professor for time and place		(3)

Economics

1	Introduction to Economics	Tyson	WF 11-12	Wheeler Auditorium	(3)
109	Introduction to Political Economy	Ward	TuTh 12:30-2	166 Barrows	(3)
161	Economic Systems	Grossman	TuTh 8-9:30	126 Barrows	(3)
162	Economics of the Soviet Union	Grossman	TuTh 3:30-5	170 Barrows	(3)
215B	Political Economy	Ward	W 12-2	104 Barrows	(3)
260A	Economic Systems	Tyson	F 1-3	102 Barrows	(3)
260C	Economic Systems	Waedekin	FBA M 2-4	254 Barrows	(3)
280B	International Economics	Letiche	M 4-6	60 Barrows	(3)
280C	International Economics	Frankel	Tu 2-4	TBA	(3)

Folklore

250B	Folklore Theory and Technique	Dundes	W 3-5	115 Barrows	(3)
------	-------------------------------	--------	-------	-------------	-----

Geography

108	Political Geography	Hooson	TuTh 8-9:30	525 Earth Sci	(3)
255	Topics in Political Geography	Hooson	Th 10-12:30	575 Earth Sci	(4)

History

100	Studies in Medieval Russian Culture	Kollmann	TuTh 2-3:30	2009 LSB	(4)
101	Biography and History	Slotman	TuTh 2-3:30	2413 Dwinelle	(4)
101	The United States, the Soviet Union and the World	McFadden	TuTh 12:30-2	172 Barrows	(4)
103	Soviet Women (1)	Bernstein	W 2-4	192 Barrows	(4)
103B	Topics in the History of National Socialism (3)	Feldman	Tu 3-5	3104 Dwinelle	(4)
103	Selected Problems in the History of Russian Society, Politics and Culture, 1825-1945 (with emphasis on 1825-1914) (5)	Zelnik	W 10-12	415 Warren	(4)
171B	Russia 1700-1917	Riasanovsky	MF 10-11	141 Earth Sci	(4)
280B	Social Movements, Labor Unrest and Revolution in Europe from the Paris Commune to the Spanish Civil War (2)	Zelnik	TBA	TBA	(4)
280B	Romanticism (4)	Riasanovsky	TBA	TBA	(4)

Political Economy of Natural Resources

152	Advanced Topics in Development: The Role of Agriculture in the Economic Development of Communist Countries	Waedekin	MF 10-11 F 10-11	223 Wheeler 321 Haviland	(2)
-----	--	----------	---------------------	-----------------------------	-----

Political Science

2	Introduction to Political Science: Comparative Government and Politics	Jowitt	TuTh 2-3:30	Wheeler Auditorium	(4)
127	American Foreign Policy	Seabury	TuTh 2-3:30	102 Moffitt	(4)

Political Science continued

128	The American Role in East Asia and the Pacific	Rose	TuTh 9:30-11	155 Kroeber	(4)
137B	Revolutionary Movements	Gregor	TuTh 12:30-2	2003 LSB	(4)
140B	Comparative Communism	Swaine	MWF 1-2	308 LeConte	(4)
203	Comparative Analysis of Communist Societies	Janos	Tu 9-12	719 Barrows	(4)
229A	Soviet Foreign Policy	Levesque	W 10-12	791 Barrows	(4)

AREA RELATED COURSES, STANFORD UNIVERSITY: WINTER QUARTER 1987

History

018S	The Golden Horde: The Mongols in Russia (1223-1480)	Kivelson
117	History of International Communism	Dallin
119	Aristocracy and Absolutism - Early Modern Eastern Europe	Kollmann
120C	Russia in Revolution	Emmons
320A	Major Problems in Early Russian History	Kollmann
421A	Topics in Russian History	Emmons

Political Science

154J	Marxist Theory	Ring
236A	Soviet Defense Policy and Military Affairs	Holloway

Slavic Languages and Literatures

146	Survey of Russian Literature in English Translation II: The Novel and Beyond	Frenkel
165	Soviet Film from the Bolshevik Revolution to the Present (film)	Dunlop
184	Introduction to Slavic Bibliography	Zalewski
187	Russian Poetry of the 19th Century	Frenkel
229	Russian Versification	Fleishman
230	Russian Formalism and Structuralism	Brown
246	Survey of Russian Literature in English Translation II: The Novel and Beyond	Frenkel

CENTER FOR SLAVIC AND EAST EUROPEAN STUDIES

BERKELEY, CALIFORNIA 94720

TRAVEL GRANT FUND

for

SLAVIC AND EAST EUROPEAN FACULTY

in the

University of California and California State University Systems

A grant from the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation has made it possible for us to establish a modest Travel Grant Fund for area faculty in the UC and CSU systems. These grants would be provided to scholars in the Slavic and East European area, regardless of departmental affiliation, who wish to make short-term use of the resources available on the UC Berkeley campus.

Grants will cover transportation, per diem, and research expenses while at Berkeley. The maximum award will be $700, though most awards are expected to be smaller. Decisions on funding will take into account the applicant's efforts to secure alternative funding.

Proposals and statements of need should be received in Berkeley no later than January 30, 1987. Awards will be announced in early March.

Please send materials to:

George W. Breslauer, Chair
Center for Slavic and East European Studies
361 Stephens Hall
University of California at Berkeley
Berkeley, CA 94720

Center for Slavic and East European Studies
University of California, Berkeley
361 Stephens Hall
Berkeley, CA 94720
IV03